THOMAS E. MARSHALL OF INDIANA.

freshness and spirit and a confidence which he has not had in our time.

"The responsibilities of the task are tremendous, but they are common responsibilities which all leaders of action and opinion must share. And with the confidence of the people behind me, everything that is right is possible. My own ambition will be limited to be the frank spokesman of the nation's thoughtful purposes in these great matters."

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN BOTH HOUSES

Excellent Prospect of Election of Five Senators Necessary to Change Control of Upper Branch of Congress.

WESTERN STATES RALLY UPON TO RALLY TO SENATE

Two Senators to Be Chosen in Colorado With One Each in Montana, Kansas, Nebraska Nevada and Oregon.

(By leased wire to Bureau of News, Washington, Nov. 6.—With an overwhelming Democratic majority in the house of representatives, returns today indicate a probability of the success of a sufficient number of Democratic senatorial candidates to give the Democrats control of both branches of congress. There will be sufficient uncertainty regarding the election of senators to make the senate situation indefinite.

In the present senate 41 of the 54 senators may be required to elect a senator to the Democratic column. The thirty hold-over senators, the five already elected from Alabama, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi and Virginia, and the nine to be chosen from southern states in which Democratic legislatures are supposed to have been elected.

To insure the 49 votes necessary to control there must be a further gain of five senators, all of which must come from states now represented in the senate by Republicans, unless West Virginia be counted in the list. The chances are believed to be strongly favorable to the Democrats in Colorado (in which state two senators are to be chosen), in Montana, Nebraska, Nevada and Oregon. Of these seven places still in doubt six will give the 49 votes necessary to a majority.
